ADDITIONAL DIMPLES ON PBGA PACKAGE TOP SURFACE

Change Description

Altera® announces a minor change to the form of Cyclone® V products offered in U672 and F1152 (PBGA) packages. Effective immediately, the top surface of the packages may carry additional dimples. The dimples (0.1mm maximum depth) are merely a visual characteristic, and sourcing of material with dimples facilitates manufacturing volume optimization between qualified suppliers.

Thermal impedance ( $\theta_{ja}$  and  $\theta_{jc}$ ) values, package warpage characteristics and heat sink mounting procedures should remain unchanged. Note, there is no impact anticipated or changes required to customers' pick and place equipment or processes. In the representative image in figure 1, the white arrows indicate the location of the dimples.
